BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

As Deputy to the Senior Broadcast Media Specialist, the incumbent will work in concert with the supervisor in directly engaging with mid to high-level broadcast media contacts in the television and radio industry to seek opportunities for traditional and non-traditional media interactions with United State Government (USG) officials.

Performs duties, though not limited to the following:

- Engage directly with broadcast media contacts in the television and radio industry to seek opportunities for traditional broadcast media interactions with USG officials.
- As the primary video creative director and with a deep working knowledge of the advanced- level video editing software (such as Final Cut Pro and iMovie) for the footage that will be produced by the Video Production Assistant, incumbent makes final edits to the broadcast-quality video clips for posting to the embassy's social media platforms and also markets them to India's television broadcasters.
- Inform and coordinate with consulates once a new in-house video product is available for their possible use.
- Create the strategic plan for the Mission's video outreach engagement. Advise other consulates in the Mission on these strategies, tactics, as well as video production best practices.
- Secure opportunities for traditional media interactions in the American Center studio for visiting VIPs, visiting American artists, scholars, U.S. speakers, and U.S. Embassy officials.
- Read and monitor articles, blogs, comments, and chat sessions, all on the television internet sites, both in English and Hindi.
- Provide broadcast media input and incumbent's analysis for media play, special media analysis cables, and other reports.
- Analyzes and consolidates countrywide statistics on TV and radio stations, and contributes to the press office's annual institutional analysis of the Indian media.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
